

You're invited to our

Community Information Sessions

for the Nanticoke Nuclear Power Plant Project Environmental Assessment

We were pleased to meet so many of you at our Community Information Sessions held last December and January. A summary of these sessions is available at www.brucepower.com and at the municipal libraries in Haldimand-Norfolk.

We are making progress on our environmental assessment studies and want to share the results with you. Please drop in to one of our upcoming Community Information Sessions to get an update and let us know what you think.
